

Our vision is to see a new generation of children and young people who have a vibrant, personal faith in Jesus.

Regional Team Leader (South East) | Full-time | Field-based | Salary: £35,000 - £37,000 pa

We are looking to recruit a Regional Team Leader for the South East Region. The post holder must be committed to our vision and mission, and have a desire to reach children and young people living in the South East of England who don't yet know Jesus.

You must also be able to provide leadership, direction and energy to Scripture Union's Ministry through the Regional Team. To do this, you must be able to manage the staff within your team and ensure that a large number of volunteers are recruited, trained and motivated to fulfil Scripture Union's mission.

The role brings with it the need to travel across the region and to occasionally work unsociable hours, and you can function from out of a locally-based office.

If this describes you and you are a committed Christian, in agreement with the aims and beliefs of Scripture Union, and you are looking for that next opportunity, then we would like to hear from you.
